

CODE OF ETHICS

March 2024

A MESSAGE FROM PATRICK

Dear Colleagues,

From the early days of our Group, our founders, Michel and Widad Chalhoub, believed that business success is about much more than only the bottom line. They worked to build a business that acted with purpose, passion and integrity.

Over the years, we have stayed true to this ethical approach to business, which has helped us to be among the leaders in our field and will continue to be a cornerstone of our future growth.

As a family business, our Group's reputation and my family name are one, and we are proud to be a beacon of business and ethical excellence. We hold ourselves to the highest standards of ethics and always act with integrity, honesty, and respect for the communities we serve and the environment we all share. This has been, and always will be, at the heart of our sustained success.

This Charter and Code of Ethics reaffirm and reinforce our ethical commitment, which applies equally to every individual in our Group, regardless of seniority, business unit, function or location.

It represents our promise to individually and collectively adhere to and fight for what is right, founded on the three fundamental values that reflect our ambition and guide our actions: Respect, Excellence and Entrepreneurial Spirit.

As members of the United Nations Global Compact, our Group is committed to the UNGC 10 principles in the areas of human rights, labour, the environment and anti-corruption. Appointed a board member of the UNGC in 2018, I take it upon myself to continue driving a responsible business and supporting the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) set by the United Nations General Assembly.

While this Code may not cover every situation that may arise, it provides clear guidance to help each of us to conduct ourselves and our business activities ethically – in our workplace, marketplace and society. By understanding and respecting the spirit of our Code of Ethics, the Group is empowering you to make the right decisions as part of an ethical organisation that strives to be a role model without compromise, as I strive to be each day.

Patrick Chalhoub
Group President

OUR ETHICS CHAPTER

Our values are the pillars of our Group's culture.

For us,

Respect means trust, fairness, integrity and humility;

Excellence means role model, commitment and efficiency; and Entrepreneurial Spirit means leadership, ingenuity and team spirit.

These values bind us all together: we become one in behaviour and action. Each one of us is the Group, its culture and its ethical legacy. And each one of us is responsible to champion it, nurture it and protect it.

HOW TO LIVE OUR ETHICAL STANDARDS AND PROTECT THEM IS SIMPLY TO ALWAYS MAKE SURE THAT:

- We respect the human rights and dignity of each individual.
- We act with integrity and fairness.
- We respect the environment, and we are committed to sustainability.
- We are part of the communities we serve and are committed to respecting and giving back to them.
- We comply with all applicable laws.
- We respect and protect Group assets and data, as well as those entrusted to us.
- We have zero tolerance for harassment, blackmail, defamation, theft, fraud, corruption, bribery and falsification.
- We have zero tolerance for illegal substance abuse and political or religious activism on Group premises or time.

This is our shared commitment to the essence of who we are, in behaviour and in action, in conducting ourselves and our business.

These principles are elaborated in our Code of Ethics as well as in our internal policies.

Our Code is not subject to compromise or interpretation. It is our Code because we believe it is right to behave and act this way – our way.

INTEGRITY IN ACTION

WHO IS CONCERNED?

Each of us respects our Code of Ethics and the law because we believe it is the right thing to do.

- Each of us has a duty of care to understand, help others understand and follow, both in letter and spirit, our Code of Ethics.
- Each of us is asked to sign our Code of Ethics, evidence of our awareness and engagement to uphold it.
- Each of us understands and agrees that violations of our Code of Ethics will result in disciplinary actions, up to and including immediate termination of employment and as per prevailing labour laws. High risk areas are underlined in our Code with a zero-tolerance warning.

HOW TO BE SURE THAT WE ACT WITH INTEGRITY?

When in doubt, we question our course of action. If still unsure, we ask for guidance.

QUESTIONS WE NEED TO ASK OURSELVES:

- Am I comfortable with this situation?
- Am I authorised to do this?
- Is this consistent with our Code of Ethics?
- Is this legal?
- Will this reflect well on me and our Group?
- Would I feel good if this were made public?

If the answer is “No” to any of these questions, then we hold our decision/action and ask advice to our line manager or HR who are duty-bound to provide clear and timely advice in full compliance with our Code of Ethics.

WHEN HAVING A CONCERN?

WE RAISE A FLAG IN GOOD FAITH.

- We bring to light any concern or breach of our Code of Ethics or to the law by informing our line manager and/or HR.
- When that doesn't feel comfortable, use Speak Up to share your concerns in good faith. Speak-Up is a reporting channel accessible through our intranet, One Chalhoub and the employee app, MyChalhoub. Speak Up is an external trusted environment that ensures that all matters are dealt with anonymously, and in an unbiased, timely and sensitive manner.
- We understand that we must be ready to provide our full support during any ensuing investigation, if required.

Raising a concern or reporting a breach of our Code of Ethics in good faith is encouraged: our Group guarantees that we will not be subject to retaliation, such as discrimination, threats or disciplinary action, even if the facts prove to be inaccurate.

However, if done for unethical purposes, such as defaming a colleague, it becomes a violation of this Code and will warrant disciplinary measures, up to termination.

HOW IS OUR COMPLIANCE GOVERNANCE ORGANISED?

Our Group has an Ethics Committee, constituted of members of the Group. This Committee reports directly to the CEO, who in turn sends annual updates to the Board of the Group.

THE ETHICS COMMITTEE'S MANDATE IS THAT OF A GROUP COMPLIANCE OFFICER, INCLUDING:

- To ensure that our Code is reviewed regularly and updated whenever new situations arise due to changes in society, work environment and regulations.
- To ensure that our Code is published and to organise surveys aimed at creating awareness and understanding.
- To monitor that SPEAK UP, our reporting channel, is handled appropriately by the external provider and change it if need be.
- To monitor overall compliance to the Code and all decisions made on cases of non-compliance.
- To analyse trends of deviance and address root causes.
- To sponsor full fairness and equal opportunity, in the application of key HR processes by managers.
- To provide analysis, findings and recommendations regularly to the CEO.
